Shri Shivaji Education Society, Amravati's
DHANWATE NATIONAL COLLEGE
Congress Nagar, Nagpur

Shri Shivaji Education Society Employee's Credit Co-operative Society Limited, Nagpur

Dhanwate National College lies in the successful operation of its employee's credit co-operative society, which has been running for an impressive 57 years. As one of the oldest co-operative societies in Nagpur district and having received a grade 'A' from the registrar of the co-operative sector, it enjoys a strong reputation and trustworthiness.

Key characteristics that contribute to its distinctiveness are as follows:

Introduction, Longevity and Stability: The fact is that the co-operative society has been functioning from last 57 years, shows its stability. The total members of the society are 147 which includes total staff of Dhanwate National College and Shivaji Science College, Nagpur. This society was established in 1965.

Mission of the Society: The motto of society is for the members by the members for the benefit of the members. Primary objective of benefiting the teaching and non-teaching staff of Dhanwate National College demonstrates a commitment to the well-being of the employees.

Competitive Interest Rates: Offering long-term loans of up to Rs 10 lakh and emergency loans of Rs 50,000 at just 8% interest rate per annum is a significant advantage for the members. Such competitive interest rates are very rarely seen in other co-operative societies in the region.

Recognition and Accreditation: The 'A' grade received from the registrar of the co-operative sector highlights the society's adherence to standards and responsible financial practices, further enhancing its credibility.

Member Recognition and Support: The practice of felicitating retired members and the children of members who excel academically with more than 75% marks in their 10th, 12th, and graduate levels shows a sense of community and encouragement for personal growth and academic achievement.

Contributing to a Sense of Community: The co-operative society's existence and initiatives foster a sense of community within the institution, creating a supportive environment for its members.

In conclusion: Overall, the co-operative society's success and distinctiveness lie in its commitment to employee welfare, competitive financial services, and member recognition, all of which contribute to a strong sense of community within Dhanwate National College.

REPORT ON MANUSCRIPT SECTION OF THE LIBRARY

The establishment of a dedicated section for manuscript preservation and conservation in the central library of Dhanwate National College, Nagpur is indeed an extraordinary achievement. It reflects the commitment of academic libraries in Nagpur to excellence and the preservation of valuable cultural heritage.

The addition of over 101 rare and unique manuscripts from various fields further enriches the library's collection. These manuscripts, generously donated by Dr. J. G. Chavan, a retired professor from RTMNU Nagpur, hold immense historical, cultural, and intellectual value. Preserving them for future generations ensures that their significance is not lost and that they can continue to contribute to research and knowledge.

The decision to digitize the manuscripts is a forward-thinking approach that ensures their long-term preservation and accessibility. By digitizing the collection, the library enables wider access to these valuable resources, transcending physical limitations.

Collaborating with DELNET (Developing Library Network) for sharing the manuscripts demonstrates the library's dedication to facilitating research and scholarly exchange. DELNET provides an excellent platform for resource sharing among libraries, allowing researchers and scholars from around the world to benefit from these rare manuscripts.
